

RESTRAINED BY SHOW OF FORCE

Feeling Against Foreigners at Shanghai Has Not Subsided.

MIXED COURT IS CLOSED

CAUSE OF RECENT OUTBREAK EXPLAINED.

Washington, Dec. 20.—The state department has received a cablegram from Shanghai announcing the arrival there last evening of the men from the Baltimore. The state department advises of this morning are to the effect that the British were preparing for a large demonstration by both army and navy (German, Japanese and Austrian) and that the British authorities were trying to effect a compromise, but demanded a removal of the British assessor, which demand was refused. There was no report of trouble at the outposts, but the missionaries were becoming alarmed and many were arriving in Shanghai.

Source of the Trouble.

As understood here, the trouble arose from the action of the British assessor levying a tax upon a Chinese resident of the foreign settlement. The court is a curious body, made up of a Chinese magistrate who holds sittings every week day. On two days of each week an American official from the consulate general sits with him in the capacity of assessor. On two other days a similar German official sits and on the remaining two weeks days a British representative. This court has jurisdiction over all litigations and taxes payable by the Chinese in the foreign settlement of Shanghai. The Chinese municipal authorities have always been jealous of this court, and there have been many clashes in the past owing to the efforts of the Chinese to collect these taxes themselves.

Whip Is Employed.

The court also possesses the power to punish culprits and frequently causes the cat-o-nine-tails to be laid on, while the Chinese whip culprits with bamboo. For a long time past the Chinese have been trying to reduce the authority of the mixed court and it is inferred here that the present trouble has arisen from the assertion of jurisdiction by the British over some of the Chinese merchants.

ANTI-FOREIGN FEELING.

American Boycott Was Used to Excite the People.

Che Foo, Dec. 20, 10 p. m.—A prominent European official who is visiting Che Foo, crystallizing the opinions of person thoroughly acquainted in China and with the present disorders, states that the Shanghai troubles were the direct result of the American boycott. He thinks the American officials at Washington should have opposed the Chinese demands for a revision of the exclusion laws, insisted upon the immediate suppression of the boycott. He characterizes the boycott movement as an excuse for an exhibition of anti-foreign feeling resulting from an inflammatory propaganda carried on throughout China since the commencement of the Russo-Japanese war.

Boycott Fanned the Flames.

"While the boycott is itself a harmless," continues the official quoted, "it has been used by the revolutionary anti-foreign faction of the Chinese to incite a repetition of the Boxer troubles, though it is probable that the excitable elements have eluded the control of the real conspirators and caused premature demonstrations. Unless the Washington authorities take immediate and strong measures to suppress the agitation in Shanghai," concludes the official quoted, "troubles which are not merely local will ensue."

Quiet at Shanghai.

Shanghai, Dec. 20.—All is quiet in the town today. Business has been resumed, but the volunteers and sailors landed by the warships in port remain on duty as a precaution against a renewal of the rioting. The United States gunboat Villa Lobos has arrived to reinforce the Baltimore, and the British cruiser Andromeda is expected to reinforce the Baltimore, and the British cruiser Andromeda is expected to reinforce the Baltimore.

The Western Idaho Sugar company is under bond to erect the factory, and it agrees to increase the amount of the bond from $25,000 to $100,000. ## HALF A MILLION LOST BY FLAMES

Railway Terminal Buildings in New York Burned.

WILD PANIC PREVAILED

FIVE MEN REPORTED TO BE MISSING.

New York, Dec. 20.—Fire today destroyed fully half of the immense railway terminal buildings at the foot of West Twenty-third street on the Hudson river. The loss was estimated at $500,000. Crowded ferry boats and hundreds of passengers were unloading at the terminals when a series of explosions were heard and immediately dense volumes of smoke filled the great buildings, followed quickly by flames. Great alarm prevailed, and when ferry boats, despite the flames, kept landing passengers from New Jersey at portions of the docks and terminals which were not on fire, the police from four stations had to be summoned to keep order. Several employees of the railroads were severely burned and five men were reported missing after the fire was under control.

Buildings Were New.

The new ferry houses of the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western and of the Jersey Central railroads were almost total losses. They were the newest ferry terminals in the city, the Lackawanna building still undergoing its finishing touches and the Jersey Central having been completed only two months ago. The terminals of the Erie railroad and of the Pennsylvania were in such danger for a time that the fire department concentrated its entire efforts on saving them. One small freight shed belonging to the Erie and part of its docks were damaged.

Started in Paint Shop.

The fire started in a paint shop in the Lackawanna building, presumably from a defective electric wire. A ferry boat was just discharging 500 passengers into the streets, when smoke, flames and explosions burst from the paint shop near by. So rapidly did the flames spread that when the fire department had got to work the intense heat was already melting the corner sheathing the walls of the building. A 24-foot tower of the Lackawanna building, burning from top to bottom, fell into the Hudson river, carrying a three-ton clock down with it. The roof of this building fell, leaving little except walls standing, and the Jersey Central building was almost as badly wrecked.

The rescue of $300,000 worth of tickets and cash from a safe in the Jersey Central office was a feature of the fire. A. H. Jakin, an officer of the road, ran into the office and got the safe open before the flames had overcome him. Two clerks carried him out of the building. Hundreds of trunks are reported to have been destroyed in the two burned terminals.

BURLY BRUTE IN JAIL

Captain Lewis of the Oyster Dredge Boat Sailed Accused in Court of Inhuman Treatment.

Baltimore, Dec. 20.—The witnesses in the case of Captain Levin T. Lewis of the oyster dredge boat Saddle Lewis, who was given a hearing today before United States Commissioner Rogers, on the charge of cruelty to members of his crew, were severe in their accusations, and as a result Captain Lewis was held in default of $2,500 bail for the action of the federal grand jury. The witnesses testified that they had been cruelly beaten by the captain from the time they put foot on board the Saddle Lewis until relieved from their bondage by the United States officers of the revenue cutter Window. The testimony also was to the effect that a white mate named "Tom" and a colored second mate named George Atwood were guilty of similar offenses. The two mates, it was testified, on one occasion beat one of the members of the crew almost into insensibility, and in his efforts to avoid further punishment the man fell overboard and was drowned without any serious effort being made to save him. The crew consisted of ten men, all of whom testified to acts of cruelty.

VERDICT FOR PLAINTIFF.

St. Louis, Dec. 20.—The suit of Ernest Morgan against Zach Muhlhal, the Wild West showman and stockman, for $20,000 damages because Morgan was shot during an encounter between Muhlhal and another man on the Pike last year, resulted yesterday in a verdict of $5,000 in favor of the plaintiff.

Upon My Honor

As an American Citizen.

I consider Paracamp, First Aid to the Injured, to be America's most reliable household remedy. I fully believe and will guarantee Paracamp to be the quickest and surest relieving and healing agent ever offered to the public for Burns, Cuts, Bruises, Swellings and Inflammations. It is an absolute preventive of Blood Poisoning, for which reason alone it should be kept in every home, shop and factory. Paracamp heals without leaving ugly scars. It does not dry and scab, but actually heals from the bottom of the wound up. Paracamp is unequalled for the quick relief it gives in cases of Neuralgia, Rheumatic Swellings, Sore Feet, Sore Muscles, Itching and Burning Skin, Itching Piles, Insect Bites, Swellings and Inflammations. It is superior to old fashioned salves and liniments, arnica and vasoline, for the reason that when applied it opens the pores of the skin, penetrates directly to the seat of the ailment, stimulates the circulation, removes the congestion and draws out all soreness, swelling and inflammation by inducing sweating. I guarantee every bottle of Paracamp to do exactly what is claimed for it when applied as directed. If used as advised without giving the promised results, every retail druggist is authorized to refund the money. Don't take any substitute, there is nothing "just as good" as Paracamp.

SALESMAN WAS CARELESS.

Elizabeth, N. J., Dec. 20.—A package of diamonds value at $12,000, which was dropped on the floor of a restaurant here yesterday by David H. Conble, a diamond salesman of Philadelphia, was recovered intact by Mr. Conble today. The restaurant proprietor, ignorant of the contents of the package, kept it over night in the pocket of an old overcoat hanging in the kitchen.

GEARIN IN WASHINGTON.

New Senator From Oregon Will Take the Oath Today.

Washington, Dec. 20.—John M. Gearin of Oregon, who has been appointed to the United States senate to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Senator Mitchell, reached Washington today. He visited Senator Fulton and arrangements were made whereby Mr. Gearin's credentials will be presented and he will be sworn in tomorrow.

FUND WAS RAISED TO DEFEAT BILL

Little Insurance Companies Put Up Their Share.

MUTUAL RECORDS MISSING

SUPPLY DEPARTMENT LEAK IS COVERED UP.

New York, Dec. 20.—The Washington Life Insurance company, the Germania Life Insurance company and the Bankers' Life Insurance company divided the attention of the legislative insurance investigating committee today. John Tatlock, president of the Washington Life, finished his testimony, which was begun yesterday. Mr. Tatlock declared that he never influenced or suggested to the finance board what securities to buy. Mr. Tatlock said he thought in insurance companies should be run by men in touch with the Wall street because of their knowledge of the security market. He also favored the idea of insurance companies specializing in securities.

Does Business in Germany.

Cornelius Doremus, president of the Germania Life, said that about one-third of his company's business was done in Europe, principally in Germany, and that this business in many respects is better than any done in America. He declared it to be more stable, there being fewer lapses, while the cost is a great deal less than in America. The medical direction is also better in Germany, he said. He characterized the American ways of doing business as "wild methods."

The only contributions of a legislative character paid by this company were $500 to a fund having for its object the defeat of the mortgage tax law, and $250 to further the passage of the lien bill in Albany in 1904. No campaign contributions had ever been made.

E. J. Baylies, who collected the fund to defeat the mortgage tax law, said on the stand today that he secured a fund of $22,000 for this purpose.

The examination of the Bankers' Life will be resumed tomorrow.

RECORDS ARE MISSING.

More Rottenness in Connection With the Mutual Management.

New York, Dec. 20.—Discovery was made yesterday, according to the Herald, that books on their own account, going to show in detail the transactions of the Mutual Life Insurance company's supply department while it was under the management of Andrew C. Fields have been destroyed or stolen from the safe in which the department records are kept. For more than three weeks this has been known to the company's temporary president, Frederick Cromwell, and he has searched the Mutual Life building from top to bottom without finding the least trace of the missing books.

It was a demand for the production of these books before the Mutual's investigating committee, of which W. H. Truesdale is chairman, that brought to light the fact of their disappearance.

Employed Detectives.

When the members of the investigating committee learned of the disappearance of the records they began a search on their own account, going so far as to employ detectives for that purpose. These men have reported that they have been unable to find any clew which will help them in locating the missing books.

There are three men employed in the Mutual's supply department who were believed by the members of the investigating committee to have knowledge of the whereabouts of the records. Accordingly they summoned W. H. Carpenter, who, according to his testimony before the Armstrong committee, was in charge of Mr. Fields' "house of mirrors" in Albany. Mr. Carpenter was examined on Monday, but after he left the committee room the members were no wiser than before.

C. A. Morris, who was Fields' assistant in the supply department, was next questioned, but he failed to throw any light on the subject of the books. The third man, who they believed, could tell them something about the missing books, is Julius Heye, book-keeper of the department. The investigators, it was said yesterday, had not yet been able to secure the presence of Mr. Heye before them.

MURDERER PAROLED.

Trenton, N. J., Dec. 20.—Lubbe Garbrandt, the Paterson murderer, was granted a parole by the board of pardons today by a vote of five to three. She was convicted of murder in the first degree, when she was 17 years of age, but the sentence was afterwards commuted to life imprisonment. She has been in the state prison thirty-four years.
